

Grow-in-the-bag Herbs Fundraiser

Thank you for your involvement in this fundraiser. Your school/organisation appreciates your efforts in helping them raise money with this healthy, fun and educational product.

Your organisation will raise 40% of each sale—that's $2.40 per herb pack!

Please sell each of the ten packs in your carry bag for $6 each. Collect the money in the money envelope and return to your school/organisation as soon as possible. If your school/organisation is able to process credit cards, you may also like to use the credit card slip inside the envelope.

You may like to use the reverse side of this sheet to promote the fundraiser. Simply write the name of your school/organisation in the space provided and attach the sheet to the outside of your carry bag. You can also use it to help explain the product to people.

Answers to some common questions

How long can I keep it before planting?

They can store for up to a year in a cool, dry place. Seed viability may diminish after this time.

When should I plant my seeds?

The herbs will grow year-round indoors in a sunny spot (eg: a windowsill). They might grow more slowly in winter due to fewer daylight hours. Avoid growing outdoors in winter in colder areas.

How often and how much should I water?

The pack is designed to reflect light onto your herbs and create a humid environment. They will need much less water than if they were outside in the ground.

Look at the soil surface a couple of times a week. If it looks dry, lightly sprinkle some water on top. Dipping your fingers in a glass and dripping/flicking the water into the pack a couple of times works well—aim for a light 'rain'. If you accidentally over-water or would like to allow drainage, use a pin to prick some small holes in the bottom of the pack. Exact water requirements will vary based on where you live, time of year and growing environment.

Can I re-use the pack?

Absolutely! Once your herbs have grown, simply remove the plant, top up the soil and plant more seeds.

What is the Happy School?

Each Living Fundraisers product has a charity/non-profit organisation partner. Living Fundraisers donates a percentage of sales from each product to this partner (this does not affect the 40% made by your fundraising organisation).

The Happy School is a small, community school in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. It was started and is supported by the voluntary efforts of a group of young Australians. More information on the Happy School can be found at www.acecambodia.org.au
